RECENT DEATHS
IN VERMONT

Alison P. Sleeper died at Lyndonville, Friday, July 3. Mr. Sleeper was born in the town of Newark, September 9, 1843, and lived there until 21 years of age, when he married Idella Corlies of the same town, who died March 1, 1908.
They moved to Lyndonville in 1864, being among the first settlers. Two daughters were born to them, Mabel, wife of George Pierce, who died two years ago, and Ethel, who is left to mourn the loss of the dear one who have been taken from her in so short a time.

Mr. Sleeper had been sick with diabetes for three years and had been a great sufferer. During this time he showed that patience and unselfishness were his strong characteristics. He was a painter by trade and, though in feeble health, worked to within a very short time of his death. He was a thorough, reliable workman, and he has worked upon many of the buildings in Lyndon-ville and vicinity.

The funeral was held Monday afternoon at the home of the deceased, the Rev. E. G. French officiating.

The relatives from out of town were Mr. and Mrs. Lyman Sleeper of Newark, Windsor Corlies of Bradford, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Corlies of Burke, Lyman Powers of Montreal, Mrs. Viola Sleeper, Mrs. Hattie Fairbrother and Mr. and Mrs. Harley Powers of West Burke.

Position Goes to U. V. M. Graduate.

After considering a number of candidates for the vacancy in the principalship of the Dalton, Mass., high school, the school committee has decided to offer this position to Arthur L. Williams of Winchendon, Mass. Mr. Williams was graduated from the university of Vermont, Burlington, in 1904, and has been engaged in high school work since his graduation, having had in all four years' experience. Mr. Williams will enter upon his new duties as principal of the high school, as well as principal of the whole building, September 8.

Librarian to Succeed Miss Hagar.

The trustees of the Fletcher Free library, Burlington, have voted to offer the position of librarian, made vacant by the death of Miss Susan C. Hagar, to George Dana Smith, at present employed in the Watkinson library of Hartford, Conn. His term of service to begin September 1, 1908. Mr. Smith is a former resident of Burlington, having been employed for several years with the Wells-Richardson Co. as bookkeeper and cashier. He was also prominently connected with the Unitarian church. Since leaving Burlington he has taken a course in library science and for several years has been with the library in Hartford.

DEER ROB THE COWS.

Pittsfield, Mass., July 10.—Cows in the pastures of New Ashford, twelve miles north of Pittsfield, the smallest town in Massachusetts, have been suckling deer so much that two farmers have written to Elmer P. Beech, chairman of the selectmen, asking for damages. Mr. Beech estimates that 900 quarts, valued at $65, have been stolen by the deer. County Treasurer Henry A. Brewster notified Chairman Beech that the county isn't paying for milk stolen by deer, as the law specifies that damages can be collected only for crops destroyed.

William P. Baker, a New Ashford farmer, said yesterday: "There are at least 100 deer in New Ashford. If the farmers can't get pay from the state for milk stolen by deer, then summer residents will take up a collection for them."

The Greylock commissioners are to start a deer park in Sugar Loaf, one of the foothills of Greylock, and they propose to corral the deer in that section.
Ex-Congressman Francis W. Rockwell is back of the plan.

Who Are Our Greatest Teachers?

A writer in the July American Magazine says:

"I am glad to see that you are taking up education. I hope that before you finish you will give us the stories of some inconspicuous teachers who have done great work. Beyond doubt there are many such in our land today.
Abraham Lincoln's step-mother was a great teacher."

"It seems to me that this prospect alone will inspire you, and that it ought to quicken the imagination of your readers. The other night I was enjoying Mark Twain's story of 'Captain Stormfield's Visit to Heaven.' Nothing pleased me more than the Captain's account of how, in heaven, Shakespeare and Homer are not rated as the greatest poets. The greatest poet was a poor tailor, Edward J. Billings, of Tennessee. Of course, we never heard of Billings; he escaped our attention. But in Mark Twain's heaven, where values are real, he takes his rightful place."

"So to this enterprise. What sort of journalism is it that leaves heaven to make all the discoveries?"

The Only Question.

No, I haven't read what the candidates said—

But how did the game come out?
No, I haven't seen why Sam Gompers turned green—

But how did the game come out?
How fighting old Mexico happens to fare,

Why Root has gone into hard training and where,
What Panama's doing—I simply don't care,

But how did the game come out?
I hadn't perceived that Gov. Cummins bank was burned—

But how did the game come out?
I hadn't perceived that Gov. Cummins looked peeved—

But how did the game come out?
I am not aware that the campaign's begin,

I really can't say if Bill Bryan will run,
No, I hadn't heard that the Spanish War's done—

But how did the game come out?
My grandmother died at 8:30 today?
I'm sorry—but who won the game?

Aha! It's a boy, and a fine one, you say That's bully, but—who won the game?

Look here, can't you see that I'm all in a freeze?
For pity sake, hold off on trifles like these!

Don't play with a man's highest feelings—ah, please Just tell me who—Who won the game?

ABOUT THE STATE

The rural free delivery carriers from the Morrisville post-office have taken applications the past year for 479 money orders amounting to $2,411.54.

There is said to be unusual activity at Highgate Springs, the well known summer resort, this season. One reason for this, it is said, is the excellent fishing, there being large catches of bass daily, as well as many pickers.

The collections made in the customs district of Vermont during the month of June amounted to $40,721.10, while the value of the merchandise exported was $523,409. During the month of June, 1907, the collections were $64,590.

The cloudburst Sunday afternoon in Gloucester, a little mountain town nine miles northeast of Bennington, is described as remarkable. Although the rain fell for less than half an hour, yet the roaring branch that passes through Bennington was raised nearly a foot and a half from one of the small tributaries of the stream that rises in Gloucester.

Although the building in Rutland is not so heavy as it has been in the past two years, several structures are being erected. In 1906 seventy buildings were put up, and last year about fifteen buildings in course of construction, which is considered exceptionally good by the contractors in view of the recent business depression.

PRESIDENT AND FAMILY
SPEND DAY IN WOODS.

Secretary Loeb Told He Need Not Visit Sagamore Hall.

Oyster Bay, N. Y., July 10.—Early yesterday President Roosevelt and his family started out for a day's picnic in the woods. Secretary Loeb received word from the president that it was unnecessary for him to make his usual morning call with the mail and executive business. Where the Roosevelt picnic is being held, no one could learn.
Secretary Loeb did not know, and no secret service men accompanied him.

On account of the president's absence no information on the reported utterances of the president regarding a war with Japan, as quoted by Capt. Hobson at Denver, could be obtained.

Fertilizers for Summer and Fall Top-Dressing and Seeding-Out.

Up-to-date farmers are agreed that in many cases better results are obtained on meadows from fertilizers which are applied in the summer or early fall. This is true both as to top-dressing and seeding-out.

We wish to call the attention of the farmers of Vermont to the fact that we can furnish formulas for mixing fertilizers especially adapted to top-dressing and seeding-out grass land.

These formulas have not only been approved by the Vermont Experiment Station, but have been used with excellent results by a great many farmers in Vermont and have proved thoroughly reliable. We can also furnish the materials for mixing fertilizers in accordance with these formulae.

We should be pleased to send the formulas together with full directions for mixing, cost of materials, etc., to any one who will write carroll S. Page, Hyde Park, Vt.

DISCRIMINATING LADIES.

Enjoy Using Herpicle on Account of Its Distinctiveness.

The ladies who have used Newbro's Herpicle speak of it in the highest terms, for its quick effect in cleaning the scalp of dandruff and also for its excellence as a general hair-dressing. It makes the scalp feel fresh and it always that itching which dandruff will cause.

Newbro's Herpicle effectively cures dandruff, as it destroys the germ that causes it. The same germ causes hair to fall out and later baldness; in killing it, Herpicle stops falling hair and prevents baldness. It is also an ideal hair dressing, for it lends an aristocratic charm to the hair that is quite distinctive. Sold
